

In Our Shoes

Congratulations on ordering this Free Audio Action Plan! Today is the start of a new life of SUCCESS where you are CONFIDENTLY creating the next chapter, recognizing YOUR VALUE, if you accept it.

NEW YORK BUSINESS JOURNAL
WOMEN OF INFLUENCE

HITC BUSINESS

You may not know it yet, but your decision to order this Free Audio Action Plan, will turn out to be one of the smartest moves you've ever made for your success. You'll understand why when you listen to its high-value content. It delivers more real information and proven gutsy tactics on Leadership than any other you have come across.

This Audio Bundle is RICH with usable information, not theory. Why? Because it's based on years of real on-the-ground experience on what it REALLY takes to get out there with confidence, leading with an action plan and consistently reaching your goals STRATEGICALLY. It's not about pushing hard to get what you want when you feel stuck. It's about slaying the conversations in your mind which are affecting your confidence levels, hence the decisions you make in your career and personal life, gaining back the power to create the life that you want. It's about clearing the clutter in your life and being fierce around your time, so you and everyone who loves you, knows exactly where you are headed to support you. Once you overcome those self-limiting beliefs, you become comfortable and free to consistently take on more everywhere. And it works.

This Gutsy Leadership 'thing' works!

Because I receive testimonials from people in Europe and in the US, who rave about the Gutsy Leadership System™. They rave about the opportunities that open up and confidence levels they reach, getting a taste for the power to ask and then receive, leading as a key player in every area of their life.

Using this 5-step process, they become very comfortable in self-promote mode, recognize their achievements, get visible, lock-in a consistent 'voice' in all their communication with confidence, grounded by their awareness of self-worth. They ask for what they want and turn the rejection-filled word 'No' into 'Not Right Now', until they receive. They learn to look beyond the trees and see the big picture to consistently meet their goals, while learning to ask for support without feeling pushy, building a pipeline which they can rely on for years to come. All of this equals a new-found resilient confidence, more success, freedom and opportunities to gain credibility and increase their income than they've ever experienced before! Finally a solution!

You'll get a taste of it by listening to the Audio Program

As you listen, you'll be given much more information and know-how than you expected. You'll start to get a glimpse of what you too can implement in your life. If you're focused on career goals now, this inevitably spills over into your personal life as well because my students won't settle for anything less on the home front either, once they have seen their own results in their career or business. Each time you listen to the audio action plan, you'll imagine the change you can make in your life and get new ideas every time.

You'll Believe in Yourself, Speak and Lead with Confidence, Attract New Opportunities.

You may then ask, "OK, this makes a lot of sense. What's next?" Well, when you're ready to get your hands on the actual tools, worksheets, action plans and cheat sheets of the program, guiding on how to get outside your comfort zone, take on new GutsyLeadershipMoves.com Gutsy Leadership Moves you need to advance today. Info@InRShoes.com opportunities, get unstuck, leading in areas where you feel confident in all communication channels, advancing to a new level, just reach out and send an e-mail to: Info@InRShoes.com to schedule a chat and I'll see if I can help. (international conference lines provided). It's the answer you've been looking for. Nowhere else will you find it so easy to receive all the necessary elements in one place, in clear language.

OVER, PLEASE

All the tools will be handed to you on a silver platter. The result of our work is an approach to getting outside your skin, pulling up a mirror to all you bring to the table, bumping up your self-worth and how you see yourself which over time and with your dedication, works consistently to attracting the opportunities you want, confidently speaking about your value comfortably and naturally with anyone. The work you do in the program is not a one-shot deal. It stays with you in the long run so you can consistently keep advancing to higher confidence levels, leading in all areas of your life where you look to take on more, not settling for anything less!

You're probably saying to yourself, "If this program is that good, why haven't I heard of it yet?" Always and every time, what you need most arrives just when you need it most, right? The solution always shows up when you finally make the decision to succeed. That's what happened to Ruth, Kara and Sharon. Hear what they have to say below:

Here's what Kara Kent received after her first two-hours of mentoring in the program. Shortly after, Kara was hand-picked by Apple (yes as in THE APPLE.com!), whisked away to their international headquarters in California on Apple campus for an all-day interview to meet her personally, all based on implementing the self-promotion techniques provided to her.

"Thank you for everything you have done for me Marisa as far as the motivation I have received. When we sat down I was at a point in my life when I was so discouraged and I couldn't put into terms how uncomfortable and complacent I was. I truly felt like I was dead-ending. It's not a good place to be in the middle part of your life. You want to feel empowered in your career and personal life. I was craving the ability to have that. You fluently put my abilities out there and had me recognize them. I feel like a million bucks. I just can't believe that you made everything come through that I really needed. I can't wait to get on that plane and knock-out my interview at Apple!"

Here's what Ruth Larsen received after just one 30 minute session of mentoring.

"Thank you, thank you, thank you for our conversation and e-mails. I've taken some risks based on your reminders of how far I've come and am now being coached to become a full-timer! I have just asked my boss for an appointment with her to chat on how I can step up on that full-time goal. We had just discussed my semi-annual seniority level and the next day the "coach to full-time status" desire was verbalized by both of us! I am mindful each day of Confidence, Full-Time Hours, and Communication goals I have set and appreciate how you've helped me with clarity of vision already. :)"

Here's what Sharon Li received after a 2-hour private Mastermind event, held for New York University's women graduates.

"Speaking with you was a breath of fresh air where I felt myself exhale. Sometimes, we get caught up by the busy day-to-day lives that we don't have a chance to sit back and reflect what we have done and where we want to go. I was able to analyze a career situation from a different perspective and come up with creative solutions that I could not come up with on my own. It is also inspiring to know that there is a sisterhood of driven women out there who are willing to share their life stories openly and honestly. This is education which felt custom-packaged just for me."

You can learn more on <http://www.InRShoes.com> after you listen. If you prefer to go mobile, then just copy the files onto any music device. Until then, thank you for having an open mind to reach out and for giving me a chance to show you that the success and freedom you are dreaming of is right around the corner for you – I truly mean that. Don't let anyone (including yourself) convince you that you are not good enough. Because you are and you have everything you need to get to the next level in your career or business. I can't wait to hear your own results!

Big hug to you,

Marisa
